The stories of Krishna reveal the expanse of Divine possibility and offer the invitation to create the most sublime relationships of intimacy in our lives.

In this visionary mythology we contemplate every human emotion, every fear, hope, joy and terror until we dance with Krishna in the play of the essential; the feeling of feelings in the circle called the Rasalila.

In this intimate retreat setting, we will explore the depths of our human emotional reckoning through stories, symbols and the traditions of the Rasalila through the innocence and passions of Krishna's life.

Take this wonderful opportunity to step into the powers of mythic consciousness and evolve your understanding and experience of the traditions of Bhakti Yoga, the deep engagement with Love.

No previous experience is expected or required. Bring an open mind and a willing heart.
